AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF PHYSICS LLC GERMAN CONSORTIUM
LICENSE AGREEMENT 2016

AUTHORIZED USERS

AIP grants to the Members and Authorized Users at Member institutions online access to titles listed in Appendix A. This grant extends only to the Members and to Authorized Users at Member institutions and may not be transferred or extended to others. "Authorized Users" means only the employees, faculty and students officially affiliated with the Members, and persons with legal access to the Members' library collections and facilities on-site, using an IP address within the ranges identified in Appendix C, or off-site via Secure Authentication and who are affiliated with the Member institutions (whether on a permanent or temporary basis). Persons who are not a current member of the Consortium, but who are permitted to access the Members information services from computer terminals within the physical premises of the Members institutions, 'Walk-In Users', are also deemed to be Authorized Users, only for the time they are within these physical premises. "Walk-In Users" may not be given means to access the Licensed Material when they are not within these physical premises. The Consortium and its Members will exercise reasonable vigilance and shall be responsible for all access control and security measures necessary to ensure that the Members’ IP addresses are not used by anyone other than Authorized Users. The Consortium and its Members warrant and represent that common and reasonable methods will be used to inform Authorized Users of general terms and conditions for the use of the Licensed Material that are consistent with this Agreement. Furthermore, the Consortium and its Members will make every attempt to enforce the terms of this Agreement upon receiving information from AIP or any other source that reasonably indicates that one or more Authorized Users is in violation of the terms of this Agreement.

PERMITTED USE

a) Authorized Users are permitted online access to the Licensed Material listed in Appendix A, and may download, save, or print text, search results, or other information solely for their private use or research. The Members and Authorized Users may only use this online access in a way that conforms with all applicable laws and regulations.

b) The Publisher of each online journal listed in Appendix A grants the Members and Authorized Users permission to use brief quotations from the content of the online journals with the customary acknowledgment of the source, and to copy and transmit content from individual articles in "person-to-person" and non-systematic scholarly exchanges of information between Authorized Users and specific individuals.

c) Members may supply a copy of an article to a library that is not a Member of the Consortium only under the following conditions:

1. The subscriber may print and deliver journal articles from subscribed titles (as defined herein) and, if any, book chapters from the subscribed products to fulfill requests as part of the practice commonly known as "interlibrary loan" from non-commercial libraries located within the same country as the subscriber.

2. Members may not supply an article to another library on a commercial, revenue-generating basis without full payment of the Publisher's royalty, as indicated by the Item Fee Code for each publication.

3. No article may be supplied to a corporation or other non-academic institution without full payment of the Publisher's royalty.

4. Members may not remove, obscure or modify copyright notices that are part of an article to be printed and supplied to another library.

5. Only article requests from non-Member academic libraries within Germany may be fulfilled, under the conditions indicated above.

d) Faculty at Member institutions may include articles from the Licensed Material in anthologies (coursepacks) in print or digital form for distribution to Authorized Users for their use in connection with classroom instruction or in reserves (print or digital) set up by Consortium libraries for access by Authorized Users in connection with specific courses offered by the Members. Copies of items in digital form which are included in online coursepacks or reserves will be deleted by the Consortium or its Members after the end of the semester in which the related course concludes.

e) The Consortium agrees that use of the Licensed Material by the Members or Authorized Users other than indicated above is a violation of the terms of this Agreement.

f) Authors from authorized institutions who publish in the Licensed Materials are permitted to deposit their articles in the form published by the publishers (e.g. PDF) with no time embargo in the institutional repository of the affiliated institutions, where they may be made available without access controls.

PROHIBITIONS ON CERTAIN USE

Licensee shall not knowingly permit anyone other than Authorized Users to use the Licensed Materials. Altering, recompiling, reselling, publishing or republishing of any journal text, search result, or other information from the Licensed Materials, or any portion thereof, in any form or medium, is prohibited.

a) Systematic or programmatic downloading, printing, transmitting, or copying of the Licensed Material is prohibited. "Systematic or Programmatic" means downloading, printing, transmitting, or copying activity of which the intent or the effect is to capture, reproduce, or transfer the entire output of a journal volume, a journal issue, or a journal topical section, or sequential or cumulative search results, or collections of abstracts, articles, or tables of contents. Other such systematic or programmatic use of the Licensed Material that interferes with the access of Authorized Users or that may affect the performance of the Publishers' systems, for example, the use of "robots" to index content, or downloading or attempting to download large amounts of material in a short period of time, is prohibited. Redistribution of the Licensed Material, except as permitted in Section 5, without permission of the Publishers and/or payment of a royalty to the Publishers or to the appropriate Reproduction Rights Organization, is prohibited.

b) All rights not expressly granted herein are reserved to the stated Publisher of the Licensed Material. The Members and Authorized Users may not circumvent AIP's access control systems or the Publishers' systems or services to make any attempt to gain unauthorized access to any other system or network.

FAILURE OF PERFORMANCE

The Publishers endeavor to provide service 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. The Publishers will announce to subscribers any planned downtime necessary for service upgrades, and will always seek to minimize the length and effect of such downtime. The Publishers, however, will not be liable for any delay, transmission error, software or equipment incompatibilities, force majeure or other failure of performance. The Publishers will use all commercially reasonable efforts to correct any material performance problem brought to its attention as quickly as possible and may suspend performance pending such correction.

ARCHIVAL RIGHTS OF SUBSCRIBERS

The following section only applies to Licensed Material published by AIP, as indicated in Appendix A. For AIP Publishing LLC, Members who subscribe at full rates will retain online access to each year of content for which a current paid subscription was held, beginning with the 1999 term. There is no charge for such access as long as the Member has an active paid subscription to any AIP archival journal. If the Member lapses all AIP titles, then AIP will charge an annual maintenance fee for continued online access to any previously subscribed material. This archive policy does not apply to Members who receive electronic access to AIP content through access fees alone.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Each party shall use its best endeavors to safeguard confidential information of the other party. For the purpose of this Agreement, confidential information means information concerning the prices, fees, IP addresses, special terms, or the specific content agreed to by the parties but does not apply to the mere acknowledgement of this Agreement. Confidential information may be disclosed to Subscriber's Sites, subscription agents and any other natural or legal person who is involved in the implementation of this Agreement, but may not be shared outside the intended parties. Any information which at the commencement of this Agreement is or becomes available to the public and information required to be disclosed by law or by regulations of any governmental authority shall not be deemed confidential information for the purposes of this clause.

GENERAL

This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any prior communication or agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. The headings used in this Agreement are for convenience only and are not to be considered in construing the terms of this Agreement. Subject to termination under Section 6, this Agreement may be amended only by consent (via mail, email, or fax) of both parties. The Consortium and its Members may not make any changes to this Agreement without written consent of AIP. The Consortium and its Members must pay any applicable taxes (including but not limited to any Value Added Taxes, Sales Taxes, and Import Taxes) other than taxes on AIP's net income, arising out of the Members' use of SCITATION, the Licensed Material and/or the rights granted under this Agreement. The Consortium and its Members may not assign or transfer their rights under this Agreement. The provisions of Sections 2, 5, 6, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13 hereof shall survive any expiration or termination of this Agreement.

COPYRIGHT

The Licensed Material and their contents, including abstracts, are copyrighted by the Publishers indicated in Appendix A or as indicated within the individual journals. This material is subject to all applicable copyright, database protection and other rights of the stated owner and Publisher under the laws of the United States and other countries. Copyright notices in the Licensed Material and its articles may not be removed, obscured, or modified in any way. Unauthorized copying or redistribution of any content licensed herein is a violation of copyright laws.
