

Service Provider Agreement for EIU content

This Service Provider Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into by and between The Economist Intelligence Unit, N.A., Incorporated, with its regional offices at The Economist Group, 750 Third Avenue, 5th Floor, New York, NY 10017, USA ("EIU") and the Service Provider as set forth above. EIU is entitled to license the copyrighted property of The Economist Intelligence Unit Limited ("EIU Ltd") and wishes to license certain electronic publishing rights to Service Provider in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

4. Authorized Users ("Users"): individuals who are authorised by the Institution to access the Institution's information services whether on-site or off-site via Secure Authentication and who are affiliated to the Institution as a current student (including but not limited to undergraduates, postgraduates and guest students), member of staff (whether on a permanent or temporary basis including retired members of staff and any teacher who teaches Authorised Users) or contractor or registered user of the Institution. Persons who are not currently a student, member of staff, contractor or registered user of the Institution, but who are permitted to access the Institution's information services from computer terminals or otherwise within the physical premises of the Institution ("Walk-In Users") are also deemed to be Authorised Users, only for the time they are within the physical premises of the Institution.

Schedule 4

Terms of Access for the National License Archive

Opt-in Institution register for the SP Service by following a registration process managed by the Service Provider or a third party. Thereby the joining institutions acknowledge and agree to the terms and conditions of this agreement, especially the permitted uses and restrictions for their Users as follows:

1. Scope of License

1. Permitted Uses.

You are permitted to print or download reasonable portions of the Licensed Information for your own educational purposes. You may, in connection with your educational purposes, on an occasional and irregular basis, provide insubstantial portions of the Licensed Information to non authorized users or in scholarly works, articles, memoranda, reports and presentations provided that (i) these insubstantial portions are only made available in print or by secure electronic means to a limited number of individuals and (ii) you must include copyright notices from EIU and the Publishers and original source attribution whenever providing any portions of the Licensed Information to any other persons.

2. Prohibited Uses.

Except as expressly permitted in Section 1, you may not, directly or indirectly, allow any other person to use or share your user name or password, or to allow an unauthorized user to have access to the Information. Except as expressly permitted in Section 1, you may not (i) reproduce or store in or transmit to any other web site, newsgroup, mailing list, electronic bulletin board, local area or wide area network or regularly or systematically store in electronic or print form, all or any part of the Information or (ii) modify, publish, transmit, participate in the transfer or sale of, reproduce, create derivative works from, distribute, perform, display, or in any way exploit all or any part of the Information (including use as part of any library, archive or similar service) without the prior written consent of EIU. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Users may use small parts of the Information for their own research and publication of such research, so long as they always include EIU's copyright notices. Any use of the Information not specifically permitted by this Section 1 is expressly prohibited. Requests for permission for other uses may be sent to Lisa Hennessey, Global Director Client Services and Content Licensing, Economist Intelligence Unit, 750 Third Avenue, 5th Floor, New York, NY 10017 or by email to lisahennessey@economist.com, and may be subject to a fee."
