ENHANCED ACCESS LICENCE FOR BLACKWELL PUBLISHING JOURNAL BACKFILES

This License sets forth the terms and conditions under which Blackwell Publishing Limited ("Blackwell"), a company with registered number 180277 and having its registered office at The Atrium, Southern Gate, Chichester PO19 8SQ United Kingdom will provide the Licensee as defined below (the "Licensee"), with access to the Products and Services subscribed to by the Licensee hereunder.

A. DEFINITIONS

1. Synergy - The online Service, as may be re-branded from time to time, available from Blackwell or its affiliates on the Worldwide Web including all products, services and features offered through the Service. Certain products and services under this License may be offered on other platforms as noted in the Appendices. The terms and conditions hereof are equally applicable to those products and services.

2. Licensee - The customer, which has authorized the signing of this License, provides access, via its Secure Network, to Synergy for its Authorized Users as defined below, and is responsible for implementation of the License. The Licensee may not extend access to Synergy, through the Licensee's network, to partners, joint ventures and affiliates not specified, except with the prior written consent of Blackwell and appropriate amendments to this Agreement. The Licensee represents that all declared Internet Protocol (IP) addresses are on its own Secure Network, and only accessible to authenticated Authorized Users. "Secure Network" as used herein means the network which provides access to Synergy for Authorized Users via the Licensee's IP ranges on designated terminals at the Licensee-controlled Site(s), plus Authorized Users accessing such Secure Network from outside such designated terminals.

3. Authorized Users - Those persons who are authorized by the Licensee to have access to Synergy. Authorized Users must be bona fide faculty members (whether permanent or visiting), registered users, students and guest students, researchers, staff members, librarians, executives or employees of the Licensee, or contractors engaged by the Licensee, provided such contractors have been informed of, and agree to abide by, the Terms and Conditions of Use set forth herein and they access Synergy via the Licensee's Secure Network. In addition, individuals with a permanent residence in Germany but who are not affiliated to the Licensee may be permitted remote access to the Licensed Materials via the Secure Network for the purposes of non-commercial research and private study by registering to obtain individual usernames and passwords. For the avoidance of doubt, individuals affiliated with commercial organizations such as pharmaceutical companies are not permitted to make use of Synergy to obtain access to content for the use of such commercial organizations but only for their own personal and non-commercial use. Walk-in Users from the general public or business invitees may also be permitted by the Licensee to access Synergy from designated terminals with a Licensee-controlled IP address. These designated terminals shall be physically located in libraries or similar physical premises directly controlled by the Licensee.

4. Licensed Electronic Products - The electronic (online) editions of the Blackwell Journal Backfiles (the "Backfiles") and the content therein, which have been licensed under the German National Academic Enhanced Access License for Blackwell Publishing Journal Backfiles signed between Blackwell and Bayerische Staatsbibliothek Muenchen and which are specified in Appendix B. Each journal is digitized from its first issue to its last issue in the 1996 volume unless there are any restrictions on access to Backfile material due to change of ownership or other reasons outside Blackwell's control, in which case, the restriction is identified in Appendix B. The publication of the Backfile for each journal will provide continuity of access for subscribing institutions to all issues published from first publication up to the content covered by current content licenses starting in January 1997.

B. ACCESS PRIVILEGES

1. Blackwell grants to the Licensee and its Authorized Users, during the Term as defined below, a non-exclusive, non-transferable right and license to access, via Synergy, the full text and other material in the Licensed Electronic Products as listed in the appendices attached hereto.
2. In addition, Authorized Users will have unlimited access to all available Tables of Contents, article abstracts, chapter summaries and websites for all Electronic Products on Synergy.
3. The number of the Licensee's Authorized Users who may log onto Synergy is unlimited.
4. The Licensee acknowledges that the Electronic Products and Synergy are protected by copyright. All rights not specifically granted to the Licensee are expressly reserved.

C. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF USE

- 1) The rights and restrictions governing access to Synergy and the Electronic Products by the Licensee and its Authorized Users are outlined in the Terms and Conditions of Use below.
 - a. Authorized Users may download, view, copy and save to hard disk or diskette and store or print out single copies of individual articles, chapters or entries in the Licensed Electronic Products for the Authorized User's own personal use, scholarly, educational or scientific research or internal business use. Authorized Users may also transmit such material to a third-party colleague in hard copy or electronically, for personal use or scholarly, educational, or scientific research or professional use but in no case for re-sale. In addition, Authorized Users have the right to use, with appropriate credit, figures, tables and brief excerpts from individual articles, chapters or other entries from the Licensed Electronic Products in the Authorized User's own scientific, scholarly and educational works such as books and articles.
 - b. All Authorized Users have the option to create a My Synergy Page, which will allow them to create data files and links to articles, chapters and entries of interest in the Licensed Electronic Products, and search criteria, which may be reused by them. In order to do so, the Authorized User will have to select and register a user name and password, which the Authorized User must keep confidential and not disclose to or share with anyone else.
 - c. The Licensee and its Authorized Users may create links to Synergy from their Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC) records, library catalogs, locally hosted databases or library web pages, provided those links do not result in access to licensed content by anyone other than Authorized Users, or for use in any paid or commercial service or for any other commercial use whatsoever.
 - d. Authorized Users who are members of the Licensee's faculty or staff may download and print out multiple copies of material from Licensed Electronic Products for the purpose of making a multi-source collection of information for classroom use (course-pack) to be distributed to students at the Licensee's institution free of charge or at a cost-based fee. Material from Licensed Electronic Products may also be stored in electronic format in secure electronic data files for access by Authorized Users who are students at the Licensee's institution, as part of their course work. Neither the Licensee nor any Authorized User shall have the right to incorporate any such material into any institutional or other repository.
 - e. The Licensee's library staff may supply to another library (whether by post, fax or secure electronic transmission, or using Ariel whereby the electronic file is deleted immediately after printing), for the purposes of research or private study, a single paper copy of an electronic original of an individual document. Copies supplied in this way to other libraries are not for further distribution except to authorized users of the library at the library's premises.
- 2) Except as provided in Paragraph C(1) above, Authorized Users may not copy, distribute, transmit or otherwise reproduce, sell or resell material from Electronic Products; store such material in any form or medium in a retrieval system; or transmit such material, directly or indirectly, for use in any paid service such as document delivery or list serve, or for use by any information brokerage or for systematic distribution, whether or not for commercial or non-profit use, or for a fee or free of charge .

3) In order to protect the integrity and attribution of Synergy and the Electronic Products, the Licensee and its Authorized Users may not remove, obscure or modify any copyright or proprietary notices, author attribution or any disclaimer contained therein or on any screen display. Authorized Users may not integrate material from the Electronic Products with other material or otherwise create derivative works in any medium, since the exclusive right to prepare derivative works based upon the copyrighted work is vested in the copyright owners. However, brief quotations for purposes of comment, criticism or similar scholarly purposes are not an infringement of copyright and are not prohibited herein.

4) Authorized Users may not do anything to restrict or inhibit any other Authorized User's access to or use of Synergy and the Licensed Electronic Products.

5) If an Authorized User fails to abide by these Terms and Conditions of Use or other terms of this License, Blackwell reserves the right in its sole discretion to suspend or terminate such Authorized User's access to Synergy and the Licensed Electronic Products immediately without notice, in addition to any other available remedies. Notwithstanding the above, except in the case of a material breach which Blackwell deems dangerous to the integrity and security of Synergy, Blackwell shall give prior written notice to the Licensee of its intention to terminate such Authorized User's access and shall allow the Licensee and/or the Authorized User 30 days after receipt of such notice to cure the breach or agree to abide by the terms and conditions of this License.

Commercial Use means the use of the metadata for the purpose of monetary reward (whether by or for the Licensee, an authorized institution or an Authorized User) by means of sale, resale, loan, transfer, hire or other form of exploitation of the metadata. Any private communications or information supplied to Blackwell by an Authorized User may be used by Blackwell for internal business and research purposes and to help enhance and develop Synergy but will not be shared with third parties.

4. Notwithstanding subparagraph G.3 above, either party's failure to perform any term or condition of this Agreement as a result of conditions beyond its control such as, but not limited to, war, strikes, fires,
