By accessing the Product{s}, you, the Institution listed on the Order Form, agree that you and your Authorised Users are bound as follows:

1. Licence Grant. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, ProQuest LLC ("ProQuest") hereby grants you a non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to access and use the products listed on your approved Order Form, invoice or purchase order (the "Products") at your principal location (and those on any Additional Sites/Member Libraries Schedule). Any remote access rights and/or limits on simultaneous users are specified on the Order Form. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, you do not acquire any intellectual property rights in the Products or any associated software, systems, documentation or other materials. All such rights and interests remain in ProQuest and its licensors.

2. Authorised Users. By "Authorised User" we mean only: (1) For public libraries: library staff, individual residents of Germany and walk-In patrons while they are on-site; (2) For schools and other academic institutions: currently enrolled students, faculty, staff, visiting scholars and walk-in patrons while they are on-site; and (3) For other types of organizations: your employees, independent contractors and other temporary workers while they are performing duties within the scope of their employment or assignment.

3. Remote Access. If your subscription allows you to provide remote access to a Product, you will strictly limit such access to Authorised Users through the use of passwords, IP addresses or other secure method of user verification. You will not share access with other institutions or third parties either directly or indirectly. You will immediately notify us if you believe your security has been compromised.

4. No redistribution. ProQuest endorses the Interlibrary Loan and Scholarly Sharing provisions below. Beyond these uses, you may not redistribute any material retrieved from the Products nor allow any use that will infringe the copyright or other proprietary right of ProQuest or its licensors. You may not use the Products to create products or perform services which compete or interfere with those of ProQuest or its licensors.

5. Permitted Uses. The Products may be used for your internal research or educational purposes, as follows:

a. Research and Analysis. You and your Authorised Users are permitted to display and use information contained in the Products for educational, scientific, or research purposes, including illustration, explanation, example, comment, criticism, teaching, research or analysis, provided that in doing so you or your Authorised Users do not violate an express provision of this Agreement.

b. Digital and Print copies. You and your Authorised Users may download or create printouts of a reasonable portion of the articles or other works contained in the Products so long as each work is retrieved directly from the on-line database system in a manner that causes a "hit" to be registered on the on-line system for each and every print or digital copy. All reproduction and distribution of such printouts, and all downloading and electronic storage of materials retrieved through the Products shall be for your own internal or personal use as allowed under the doctrines of "fair use" and "fair dealing". Downloading of all or parts of a Product in a systematic or regular manner or so as to create a collection of materials comprising all or a material subset of a Product is strictly prohibited whether such collection is in electronic or print form.

c. Electronic Reserves. Articles or other works contained in a Product may be included in your electronic reserves systems so long as such use employs durable links to the Products so that a "hit" is registered on ProQuest's on-line platform each time a student views the work on reserve.

d. Fair Use/Fair Dealing. Nothing in this agreement restricts your use of the materials contained within the Products under the doctrines of "fair use" or "fair dealing" as defined under the laws of the United States, England, or Germany respectively.

e. Interlibrary Loan (ILL). Interlibrary Loan of materials retrieved from the Products is allowed provided that the loan is not done in a manner or magnitude that would replace the recipient library's own subscription to either the Products or the purchase of the underlying Work (e.g., newspaper, magazine or book), and that you comply with any special terms imposed by specific content providers or licensors as required under Section 6(c). With respect to our ProQuest® Dissertations & Theses product and other electronic archives such as Early English Books Online, Interlibrary Loan is restricted to one printed copy of the specifically requested dissertation, book or pamphlet loaned out at any one time.

f. Scholarly Sharing. You and your Authorised Users may provide to a third party colleague minimal, insubstantial amounts of materials retrieved from the Products for personal use or scholarly, educational or scientific research use in hard copy or electronically, provided that in no case any such sharing is done in a manner or magnitude as to act as a replacement for the recipient's or recipient institution's own subscription to either the Products or the purchase of the underlying Work.

g. MARC Records. You may load ProQuest's MARC record Products into your Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC) containing your library holdings provided such records are not loaded into a shared online catalog system such as WorldCat without ProQuest's prior written consent.

h. Scholar/Researcher Profiles. The data contained within scholar profiles within our products are for use in facilitating research and collaboration amongst colleagues. Neither you nor your Authorized Users may export or otherwise exploit the scholar profiles for mass mailings or similar marketing purposes.

6. Supplemental Terms.

a. Updates. ProQuest will announce any substantial additions, deletions or modifications of information, databases, materials, capabilities or services within the Products on its electronic mailing list service. These shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement at the time they are added to the Products, but shall not materially alter your use of the Products.

b. Systems Usage. To protect the Products for the research and educational use of Authorised Users, automated searches against ProQuest's systems are not permitted with the exception of nonburdensome federated search services. Data mining is prohibited.

c. Content Provider Supplemental Terms. Individual content licensors occasionally have conditions of use applicable solely to their content. Links to such content-specific conditions are clearly displayed with the associated content and will not materially alter your use of the Products. With respect to third-party databases delivered through the Illumina platform, any supplemental terms and conditions are clearly hypertext linked on each search screen.

7. Fees and payments. You agree pay the fees for the Products as shown on the order form, attached invoice, or accepted purchase order within ninety (90) days of your receipt of your invoice.

In addition, ProQuest reserves the right to pursue any other legal remedy available to it.

c. Remedial Action. Without limiting the above, ProQuest may suspend delivery of Product(s) to you if it reasonably determines that your failure to comply with the Acceptable Use Provisions may cause irreparable harm to it or its licensors under the specific circumstances. If delivery is suspended, ProQuest will work with you in good faith to restore your access as soon as possible.

9. Privacy. The Products do not require the entering or capture of personally identifiable user information.
