§ 2 License grant

1. The Licensee and the Institutions may use the data in any way they deem suitable in order to make the product accessible to the group of Authorized Users within the scope of this License Agreement. They may make such local temporary copies of the Licensed Material as are necessary to ensure efficient use of the Licensed Material by Authorized Users, provided that such use complies with all the terms and conditions of this Licence Agreement;

§ 3 Permitted uses

1. The Licensee and the Authorized Users may use the data only within the scope of the services typically provided by libraries to their users, i.e. primarily for research and personal use. Further processing functions, such as downloading and printing digital content for personal and academic use, are part of the license.

4. The Licensee, the Institutions or a third party authorized by the Licensee may use the Metadata in any way suitable for enabling, promoting, facilitating and supporting the use of the Licensed Material or the individual information objects it contains by the Authorized Users.

The Licensed Material or Parts thereof may be compiled, indexed and catalogued (including, without limitation, the header data and abstracts) by the Licensee and the Institutions. Anything thereby created or compiled may be integrated into the products and services of the Institutions. Metadata may be integrated into local catalogue systems, regional or nationwide union catalogue systems, other library and information systems operated by third parties (including but not limited to search engines of commercial corporations provided that the Metadata is not sold, lent, re-licensed, or distributed in any manner that violates the terms and conditions of the licence).

§ 4 Restrictions

1. Save as provided herein, Licensee, the Institutions and the Authorized Users may not:

a. Sell or resell the Licensed Material unless the Licensee, an Institution or the Authorized User has been granted prior written consent by the Publisher to do so;

b. Remove, obscure or modify copyright notices, text or Source acknowledgment or other means of identification or disclaimers as they appear;

c. Alter, adapt or modify the Licensed Material, except to the extent necessary to make it perceptible on a computer screen, or as otherwise permitted in this Licence Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt, no alteration of the words or their order is permitted;

d. Display or distribute any Part of the Licensed Material on any electronic network, including without limitation the Internet and the World Wide Web, and any other distribution medium now in existence or hereinafter created, other than by a Secure Network or unless permitted in this Licence Agreement;

e. Use all or any part of the Licensed Material for any Commercial Use or for any purpose other than Educational Purposes.

2. This clause shall survive termination of this Licence Agreement for any reason.
