2. Authorized Use of Licensed Materials

The Licensee (and for 3.b and 3.c by support of the Institutions) may:

2.1 The Licensee may permit Authorised Users to use the Licensed Materials on the terms set out herein and on condition that such Authorised Users do not grant any further sub-licence.

2.2 The Licensee may only use the Licensed Materials for the purposes of research, education, teaching or other non-commercial use and subject to the foregoing, the Licensee (for 2.2 (4) by support of the Institutions) may:

(1) download unlimited portions of the Licensed Materials and make such local temporary copies of the Licensed Materials as are necessary to ensure efficient use of the Licensed Materials by the Authorised Users, provided that such use is subject to all the terms and conditions of this Agreement;

(2) store in electronic format in secure electronic data files or print a reasonable portion of the Licensed Materials for use only in connection with specific courses of instruction offered by the Licensee;

(3) provide Authorised Users with an integrated access and index to the Licensed Materials and all other similar material acquired from other sources. The Licensed Materials or Parts thereof may be compiled, indexed and/or catalogued (including, without limitation, the header data and abstracts) by the Licensee and the Institutions. Anything thereby created or compiled may be integrated into the products and services of the Licensee and the Institutions. Metadata may be integrated by links into local catalogue systems, regional or nationwide union catalogue systems, other library services and information systems operated by third parties (including but not limited to search engines of commercial corporations provided that the Metadata is not sold, lent, re-licensed, or distributed in any manner that violates the terms and conditions of the Licence Agreement). The Licensed Materials can be integrated by the licensee or a third party authorised by the licensee without restriction (including, but not limited to) in digital course reserve collections, in virtual research environments in which Licensee participate as well as in the virtual specialised libraries operated by Licensee;

(4) engage in text mining/data mining activities in relation to the Licensed Materials, subject to obtaining the Licensor's prior written consent as set out in section 3.2 if such activities involve automated extraction of data directly from the Licensed Materials;

(5) supply to a user of another library (whether by post, fax or secure electronic transmission) a single copy of an electronic original of an individual document including any supplementary content published in connection to the document, a practice commonly known as Interlibrary Loan;

(6) allow Authorised Users to:

- Make such local temporary copies of the Licensed Materials as are necessary to ensure efficient use of the Licensed Materials, provided that such use is subject to all the terms and conditions of this Licence Agreement;

- Access the Licensed Materials by Secure Authentication in order to search, retrieve, display and view the Licensed Materials;

- Electronically save Parts of the Licensed Materials;

- Print out single copies of Parts of the Licensed Materials;

- Incorporate Parts of the Licensed Materials in printed and electronic course packs, study packs, resource lists and in any other material (including but not limited to multi-media works) and/or in virtual and managed environments (including but not limited to virtual learning environments, managed learning environments, virtual research environments and library environments) hosted on a Secure Network. Each item has to carry appropriate acknowledgement of the source, listing title and author.

- Incorporate Parts of the Licensed Materials in printed or electronic form in assignments and portfolios, theses and in dissertations ("the Academic Works"), including reproductions of the Academic Works for personal use and library deposit. Reproductions in printed or electronic form of Academic Works may be provided to sponsors of such Academic Works. Each item has to carry appropriate acknowledgement of the source;

(7) Course packs in non-electronic, non-print perceptible form, such as Braille, may also be offered to Authorised Users;

(8) store in electronic format in secure electronic data files all or any portion of the Licensed Materials for the sole purpose of data mining; and

(9) permit its Authorised Users to transmit to a third-party colleague in hard copy or electronically, minimal, insubstantial amounts (defined as no more than 5% [five percent] of the total collection of the Licensed Materials) of the Licensed Materials for personal use or scholarly, educational or scientific research.

(10) commission a third party with support for any permission stated in this License Agreement.

Save for video content which is excluded for the purposes of downloading, storing, printing and transmitting.

3. Restrictions on Use of Licensed Materials

3.1 Save as set out in this Agreement, the Licensee and the Authorized Users shall not:

(1) permit any third party or individual to use the Licensed Materials and the Licensed Materials shall not be distributed to any unauthorised users, third parties, or used for any purpose which is not permitted pursuant to this Agreement (including without limitation any commercial purpose, sale of the Licensed Materials, bulk reproduction or distribution of the Licensed Materials or commercially sponsored research);

(2) modify, change or develop the Licensed Materials in any way or create a derivative work of the Licensed Materials;

(3) remove, obscure or modify any copyright, trade mark or other notices included in the Licensed Materials;

(4) re-publish any items from the Licensed Materials, unless the Licensee has first obtained copyright permission from the appropriate copyright holder or archive or statutory permission upon which it may rely.. Permission from the original source archive/copyright holder in the case of re-publication of figures, tables and brief excerpts from the Licensed Materials in an Authorised User's own scientific, scholarly and educational works is always necessary and the Licensee should also obtain correct wording for all citations and credits from the original source archive/copyholder to the extent required by applicable law; or

(5) remove, bypass, circumvent, neutralise, or modify any of the technological protection measures used for the Licensed Materials.

3.2 In order to protect the integrity of server performance for the Licensor's customers, automated extraction of data directly from the Licensed Materials (for example only, by the use of data mining software) is only permitted subject to obtaining the Licensor's prior written consent in order to agree the best process for the extraction. Once this process has been agreed, the Licensed Materials may be used to set up value-added services, such as text and data mining, to enhance services, to encourage scholarship, teaching and learning and to conduct research by the Licensee and Authorised Users according to the following principles, as long as the purpose is not to create a product for use by third parties that would substitute the Licenses Materials. Text and data mining may be performed on the unchanged Licensed Materials or on extracted data (including but not limited to reproducing, storing, adapting, assembling large collections or extracting substantial portions of data and analysing them). The raw data is research data and may be stored, published and distributed in any medium or form under any licence in order to ensure reproducibility and sustainability, as long as the Licensed Materials cannot be reconstructed in its original, human readable form. The Licensor will cooperate with Licensee, Institutions and Authorised Users as reasonably necessary in making the Licensed Materials available in a manner and form most useful to the Licensee, Institutions and Authorised Users. Attribution must be made to the Licensor in an appropriate manner and form.
